Moducare® ES PLANT STEROLS/STEROLINS

Moducare® is a combination of phytosterols (plant fats) called beta-sitosterol (BSS) and the beta-sitosterol glucoside (BSSG) that have demonstrated immunomodulating effects, thereby balancing immune response and contributing to health. Scientists in South Africa isolated these necessary components from pine to help balance the different parts of the immune system.

SCIENCE BEHIND MODUCARE

Two helper cells, Th-1 and Th-2, determine whether we become ill or stay healthy. When Th-1 cell function is low, our ability to fight off disease, bacteria and viruses is reduced. Conversely, when Th-2 cell function is high, our production of antibodies is increased and inflammatory factors rage. Sterols and sterolins, in the correct ration, will keep immune cells functioning at optimum levels and keep other immune cells from overproducing antibodies and inflammatory agents.[†]

Moducare® is not a drug as it does not interfere with any metabolic processes of either the patient or an infecting agent, but rather it is a catalyst or messenger initiating a correction of existing immune system imbalances or maintaining adequate existing balances. Thereby, it helps to maintain good health.
